

Testimonials

My Soul Realignment session with Keith exceeded my expectations. The session revealed information about my past and current experiences that I had shared with no one. The reading by Keith has helped me to better understand my relationships and how to better manage them. Soul Realignment has also motivated me to engage in regular sustained meditation and I am reaping the benefits that come from doing so. The follow-up steps that were suggested that I undertake after the reading continue to help me to remove past-life blocks and restrictions and clutter from my life. I am a believer in both Keith's skills as well as the value of Soul Realignment. Anonymous

Keith is very knowledgeable in many areas and when he told me about the soul alignment I was so excited to participate. I had been dealing with a lung issue for about six years and was hoping that he could tap into what emotions I was carrying that may be an underlying cause. The results were amazing. Keith discovered a past life in which I was holding a part of my mother's soul out of guilt. The lung issue has cleared up and I am now feeling healthy and free of any past bonds. I am so grateful to Keith for taking this course and helping me to be healthy again. Sandy Ferrier

Soul Realignment

Healing the Soul through the Wisdom of the Akashic Records

Soul Realignment healing modality assist individuals to connect with their Soul as it was originally created by Source, often referred to as the Divine Soul Blueprint (DSB). Source created Souls to express their Divinity in alignment with their DSB. Souls incarnate in physical third-dimensional reality to express and experience its Divinity. The essential question repeatedly posed by the Soul is “Who Am I?” This essential question is answered as the Soul incarnates over multiple lifetimes and chooses specific experiences to meet itself and gain knowledge about its identity, as well as the power of choice and associated Karma in third-dimensional reality. In this context, choice happens at the level of action; that is what the Soul does. While incarnated, the Soul makes choices in or out of alignment with its DSB. Choice in third-dimensional reality creates either negative or positive karma. Karma is the mechanism that creates balance in the universe. Negative choices create blocks and restrictions to Vital Creative Energy (VCE), which the Soul needs to replenish itself and to fully express its Divinity. After successive incarnations, the Soul realizes its true relationship with the Source of its creation. Ultimately, all Souls will come to understand that its primary essence and Source are the same, Love.

Soul Realignment healing modality teaches individuals how to learn and grow from past-life experiences, as they are expressed in this lifetime in the form of accrued karma. Negative karma may be experienced as physical ailments, phobias, emotional/psychological impairment, financial difficulties, and dysfunctional relationship, or, struggling to achieve desired success or life goals. Healing occurs through a protocol in which identified negative karma is cleared from the Soul’s Akashic Record. Once the clearing is complete, the Soul’s DSB is restored, which allows the Soul to access additional Vital Force Energy, and increase its ability to fully express its Divinity.

Akashic Records: The healing power of Soul Realignment results from accessing and clearing negative Soul level karma from the Akashic Records. The most extensive source of information regarding the Akashic Records comes from the clairvoyant work of Edgar Cayce (1877-1945). Cayce was a Christian mystic who possessed the ability to access any type of information via the Akashic Records. Cayce had the ability to access the subconscious mind (which holds an individual’s Akashic Record) of the individual for whom he was giving the reading. There are multiple biographies and book titles, which explore various aspects of the information and topics Cayce discussed while accessing the Akashic Records.
